Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-22 drawn to an interleaving device comprising: a first interleaving means for performing folding interleaving on first data comprised of plural input packets, in units of a data word 5 or plural consecutive data words; and a second interleaving means for performing interleaving on second data comprised of plural packets generated by said first interleaving means, in units of the packet. Claims 1-22 are classified in class 714/755.

Group II, claim(s) 23-50 drawn to a de-interleaving device comprising: a first de-interleaving means for performing de-interleaving, in units of a packet, on third data comprised of plural input packets, in such a manner as to restore an order of packets of data generated by performing first interleaving, which is folding interleaving, on first data comprised of plural input packets in units of a data word or plural consecutive data words and performing second interleaving in units of a packet on second data comprised of plural packets generated by said first interleaving to an order of the packets that constitute the second data; and second de-interleaving means for performing folding de-interleaving, in units of a data word or plural consecutive data words, on fourth data comprised of plural packets generated by said first de-interleaving means, in such a manner as to restore an order of the packets that constitute said second data to an order of the packets that constitute said first data. Claim(s) 23-50 are classified in class 714/701.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

2. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
